

ALPHA DOMUS

HAWKES BAY

Monday March 1st 2010

A dinner to celebrate the harvest of the new wines from Alpha Domus
Hosted by wine expert and old friend, Nick Bay, and Terry Farr

Hawkes Bay is New Zealand's most exciting viticultural region. Situated on the North Island, the vineyard is next to the historic Bridge Pa airfield, where many pioneer pilots trained in the famous Tiger Moth Biplane. The Alpha Domus logo is a tribute to them.

Menu

A selection of cheesy canapés

Pilot Sauvignon Blanc 2008

*

Terrine of Roast Chicken

Pilot Chardonnay 2008

*

Monkfish wrapped in Parma Ham, butter sauce

The Wingwalker Viognier 2008

*

Roast loin of Lamb

The Navigator 2006

*

Aged Gouda Cheese

Syrah 2007

*

Coffee and Petits Fours

£67.50 per head (including all wines)